

Inner Swiss Downhill Weekend

Date: 14. - 16.08 2009
Location: Brunnen/ SZ
Switzerland

It's the first muni cycle event ever done in this kind in Switzerland. We organized a weekend with lots of muni action and a downhill race. To participate on this event you have to know the following:

- The registration fee is 68 Euros when you register before 1 July. After that it is 80 Euros. Once registered you will receive the payment information with your starter number and our bank details. Your registration is valid and will be confirmed once the amount has reached our account.

What do you get for this money? A lot!

- Two nights accommodation (you need a sleeping bag)
- Five meals (cold and warm)
- All bus transfers
- Free entrance to the Rider Party (incl. three drinks offered) included

What else should you know? (conditions)

- You need health and third party insurance. Participation is completely at own risk.
- You got to wear a helmet and other protection while all muni activities
- On Saturday we will do two great downhill rides (transfer by bus)
- On Sunday we will do the downhill muni race only sorted by rim size and gender. No age classes!
 - Less than 24 inch (Unlimited Mini)
 - 24 inch (Expert Regular)
 - Bigger than 24 inch or geared (Unlimited Expert)
- There will be also a fun distance race (10km) around an small lake after the downhill race

If you like to register for this unique event please use the following link:

<http://munitrialer.ch/Anmeldung.565.0.html> (click „JA“ to accept the conditions, add your address and a note that you need your correspondence in English)

We would like to meet riders from many different countries in the beautiful centre of Europe. Have a great weekend like never happened before in Switzerland – the country with the greatest muni rides. We are looking forward to an exciting event with your participation.

Greetings from the inner Swiss - Gregor Paul and Simon Küttel
